Epistle Reading: St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians 1:11-19

Prokeimenon. Mode 3. Psalm 46.6,1

Sing praises to our God, sing praises.

Verse: Clap your hands, all you nations.

Brethren, I would have you know that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel. For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it; and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and had called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel according to Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came to Jesus a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at Jesus' feet he besought him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. As he went, the people pressed round him. And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and had spent all her living upon physicians and could not be healed by anyone, came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased. And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the multitudes surround you and press upon you!" But Jesus said, "Some one touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me." And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." While he was still speaking, a man from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she shall be well." And when he came to the house, he permitted no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." And her spirit returned, and she got up at once; and he directed that something should be given her to eat. And her parents were amazed; but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Hymns at Small Entrance

Resurrectional Apolytikion

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad, for the Lord has shown the mighty power of His arm. He has trampled down death by death, becoming the first-born of the dead. He has delivered us from the depots of hell and has granted to all the world His great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 107)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead. Save us who sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Hymn for the Hierarch

Your confession of the true divine faith manifested you unto the whole Church as another Paul and zealot among the priests. With you together is shouting the righteous blood of Zacharias and Abel unto the Lord. Holy Father Paul, beseech Christ our God fervently, entreating that He grant us His great mercy.

Hymn for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Kontakion

O unfailing protection of Christians, and our faithful advocate before the Creator: though we are sinners, do not ignore our entreaty; but in your goodness, grant your timely help to us who appeal to you in faith. Quickly make intercession; on our behalf make speedy supplication, O Theotokos, for you always protect those who honor you. (Liturgy Book page 225)

Megalynarion

It is truly right to call you blessed, O Theotokos, ever blessed, most pure and the mother, the mother of our God. More hon'orable than the cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim. In virginity you gave birth to God, to God the Word. Truly the Theotokos, we magnify you, we magnify you. (Liturgy Book page 69)

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him, praise Him in the highest. (Liturgy Book page 83)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us. Amen. (Liturgy Book page 95)

Sunday Epistle Readers: In an effort to involve our young people in the liturgical life of the church, students from our Sunday School, grades 10-12, will be reading the Epistle Readings during the celebration of the Divine Liturgy. The assignments of the readings are coordinated through the Sunday School Program. Parents of our teens, please encourage your children to stand before the congregation and proclaim God's Word to His people. It is a blessing, an honor (and actually a lot of fun) to read in the church.

The epistle reader for today, Sunday, November 6, 2016, is Alexia Savas. The reader next Sunday, November 13, 2016, will be Matthew Tsortanidis.

Bulletin Correction: Last week's incorrectly identified the epistle reader. The reader last Sunday was Anna Drossos (not Hannah Varechok). We apologize for the error and thank Anna for her participation in the reading.

Communion Ushering Reminder: All those who are prepared and wish to receive communion should wait to be ushered from their rows by a member of the Parish Council. Sunday School children and teachers will be ushered out, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. The remainder of the parishioners wishing to receive communion will then be ushered out, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. Your cooperation in this process is appreciated.

Upcoming Special Liturgies:

Liturgies with His Eminence Metropolitan Isaiah: Between now and the end of the year our parish will be blessed with two more visits from His Eminence Metropolitan Isaiah.

The first will be the weekend of November 18-20, 2016, in conjunction with the Orthodox Christian Laity annual meetings. On Friday, November 18, 2016, at 6:00 p.m. Metropolitan Isaiah will preside over Small Vespers. On Sunday, November 20, 2016, Metropolitan Isaiah will celebrate a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy. Other visiting hierarchs will also be in attendance and participate in both of these services.

The second will be the weekend of December 9-11, 2016. On Friday, December 9, 2016, Metropolitan Isaiah will preside over Orthros (9:30 a.m.) and Divine Liturgy (10:30 a.m.) to commemorate The Conception of the Theotokos, another feast day for St. Anna and thus our parish. On Sunday, December 11, 2016, Metropolitan Isaiah will celebrate a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy (Orthros: 9:15 a.m. / Divine Liturgy: 10:15 a.m.). His Eminence will also confer a special blessing over our St. Anna Altar Servers, tonsuring them as Readers in the Church. This is a unique and unrepeatable experience for the young men who serve the Lord in the Altar.

Teaching Divine Liturgy: On Sunday, December 18, 2016, Fr. Anthony will celebrate a Teaching Divine Liturgy (Orthros: 8:15 a.m. / Service of Kairos and Proskomede (Preparation of the Gifts): 9:15 a.m. / Divine Liturgy: 10:15 a.m.). During the Teaching Liturgy, Fr. Anthony faces the congregation and will interrupt the service at various points in order to explain what is happening. The Teaching Liturgy is being offered in conjunction with our Introduction to Orthodox Christian Spirituality classes, but will be enlightening for those who have regularly attended services but don't fully experience the ineffable beauty and power of the Sacrament of the Eucharist (Holy Communion).

2016 Parish Council Elections: Parish Council elections will be held on Sunday, December 4, 2016. Six Parish Council members will be elected to serve two-year terms. Application packets are available in the narthex and can also be obtained from Fr. Anthony. Completed applications are due at or before the Fall Parish Assembly on Sunday, November 13, 2016. Nominations will also be taken from the floor at the Parish Assembly. Please prayerfully consider whether you can serve on the Parish Council.

When: Saturday, November 12, 2016

This event supports the charitable work of the Women's Ministry at St. Anna and our featured charity, Limitless Transition Services (LTS)! LTS was born of two women who wanted to help teens at risk of failing out of high school for various reasons. These ladies help kids to retake their high school credits while attending self-esteem building classes and activities. To fund their endeavors, the Directors and the kids create flavored salts. The kids are involved in all aspects of the business from flavor concept, package design, making products and selling at local farmer's markets. When teens graduate from both high school and this program they have marketable skills and priceless business experience!

Please contact AnnaSophia Clark at lilkoukla@yahoo.com with any questions.
