Epistle Reading: Acts of the Apostles 12:1-11

Prokeimenon. Mode 4. Psalm 146.5;134.3

The righteous man shall be glad in the Lord.

Verse: Hear my voice, O God.

About that time, Herod the king laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He killed James the brother of John with the sword; and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. So Peter was kept in prison; but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the Church. The very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison; and behold, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his hands. And the angel said to him, "Wrap your mantle around you and follow me." And he went out and followed him; he did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. When they had passed the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened to them of its own accord, and they went out and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel left him. And Peter came to himself, and said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to John 20:19-31

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them: "Peace be with you." When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them: "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him: "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them: "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in His side, I will not believe." Eight days later, His disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said "Peace be with you." Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to Him: "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and to those in the tombs, He has granted life.

Message from George Sergakis regarding Anastasi Dinner:

To all Parishioners of St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church,

Χριστὸς Ἀνέστη! Christ Is Risen!

On this our third year of the birth of our parish and my lucky third year chairing the Anastasi Dinner Committee, I wish to formally thank all of those in attendance and all of those who assisted me with the organization, preparation, deliverance and celebration of our Holy Pascha Anastasi Dinner; making this dinner possible. I was humbled to take on this task again and pray you all enjoyed it; and, yes Chuck, I promise that next year we'll start the dancing earlier for all to enjoy.

This year we planned on hosting up to 248 parishioners (as opposed to 224 last year) and although I didn't get a formal head count, our team served over 220 dinners (compared to 200 last year). We cooked 27 legs of lamb this year and only had 2 left over. May our parish continue to enjoy growth!

A special note of thanks to Gerard and Klea Gallegos, Chuck Karpakis, Jon Mau, and Elias Pylidis for their lead in the kitchen. Yia Sta Xeria Sas!

I would also like to specifically thank and recognize the rest of my crew, in no particular order (except alphabetical), for their helping hand in one form or another: Charles and Elizabeth Beck; Kimberly Beck; Perry Drossos; Mary Feotis; Barbara and Harry Hillas; David Hoyle and Denise Hoyle; Naji Khoury; Lloyd and Penny Mills; Donna Moore; Chris and Irene Petrogeorge; Kosta Sergakis; Tina Sergakis; Myra and Stephen Shenk; Dmitri and Tanya Smirnov; Craig and Paulette Stagg; Nick Varanakakis; Sophie Wondolowski; Christopher Zambos; Elaine Zambos; and Charlie and Sandra Zoolakis. (I apologize if I have missed anyone.)

THANK YOU TO ALL and God Bless!

Sincerely,

George Sergakis

PROJECT MEXICO MISSION TRIP

Our parish is sponsoring a trip to Project Mexico August 16-22, 2017. There are 15 spots available for parishioners aged 15 and up (younger children can attend if accompanied by a parent or legal guardian).

St. Innocent Orphanage is located near Rosarito, Mexico, just south of Tijuana. Passports required. We will be housed in tents at St. Innocent Orphanage where you will have the opportunity to meet the staff who work there and the boys who live there. This will be a very uplifting, spiritual, bonding and rewarding mission that will create memories that will last a lifetime.

Project Mexico is a wonderful chance to participate in the construction of a home for a family in need. The home will be approximately 21' X 11' and will be completed in four days. The ask will include a variety of different jobs and opportunities, such as mixing cement, sawing, driving nails, painting, meeting the recipient family, and playing with the neighborhood children. No construction experience is needed, just the ability to work hard and play hard.

The participation fee is $540 per person plus airfare and ground transportation. You can also donate towards the expenses of the trip using the following link:

www.volunteer.projectmexico.org/fundraising/group/st-anna-salt-lake-city-1

All funds raised will go to pay the participation fees, which are due April 30, and transportation costs. Excess funds will be given to the family or the St Innocent Orphanage.

Please contact Christopher Zambos at 801-913-5916 or zambosfamily@comcast.net or Fr. Anthony Savas at 801-824-3987 or franthony@stannagocutah.org if you would like to volunteer or have further questions.

We only have until April 30 to organize, coordinate, plan, fundraise and pay for this mission, so don't delay!
