Epistle Reading: Acts of the Apostles 26:1, 12-20

Prokeimenon. Mode 4. Psalm 18.4,1

Their voice has gone out into all the earth.

Verse: The heavens declare the glory of God.

In those days, King Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense: "I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who journeyed with me. And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It hurts you to kick against the goads.' And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. But rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles - to whom I send you to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.' Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but declared first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and perform deeds worthy of their repentance."

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to John 9:1-38

At that time, as Jesus passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." As he said this, he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man's eyes with the clay, saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, "Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is he"; others said, "No, but he is like him." He said, "I am the man." They said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" He answered, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash'; so I went and washed and received my sight." They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know." They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. The Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes and I washed, and I see." Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was a division among them. So they again said to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet." The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight, and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself." His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess him to be Christ he was to be put out of the synagogue. Therefore his parents said, "He is of age, ask him." So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give God the praise; we know that this man is a sinner." He answered, "Whether he is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see." They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He answered them, "I have told you already and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you too want to become his disciples?" And they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." The man answered, "Why, this is a marvel! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of man?" He answered, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and it is he who speaks to you." He said, "Lord, I believe": and he worshiped him.

Christ Is Risen / Χριστός Ανέστη

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and to those in the tombs, He has granted life.

Χριστός ανέστη ἐκ νεκρῶν, θανάτῳ θάνατον πατήσας, καὶ τοῖς ἐν τοῖς μνήμασι, ζῶην χαρισάμενος.

Hymns at Small Entrance

Entrance Hymn

Bless God in the churches, the Lord from the fountains of Israel. Save us, O Son of God, risen from the dead.

Resurrectional Apolytikion

To the Word, coeternal with the Father and the Spirit, born of the Virgin for our salvation, let us, the faithful give praise and worship. For He willed to be lifted up on the cross in the flesh, to endure death and raise the dead by His glorious resurrection. (Liturgy Book page 115)

Hymn for the Equals-to-the-Apostles

Your Apostle among the Rulers, St. Constantine, who once beheld in the sky the image of Your Cross, and who like Paul received his calling not from man, once entrusted the Ruling City into Your hand. We entreat You to restore it in peace forever, at the intercession of the Theotokos, O Lord who loves humanity.

Hymn for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Kontakion

Into the grave You descended, Immortal One, yet You destroyed the power of Hades, and as victor You arose, O Christ our God; You proclaimed to the myrrh-bearing women a greeting of joy. You brought peace to Your holy apostles, and to the fallen You granted resurrection. (Liturgy Book page 275)

Megalynarion

The angel cried out to the woman full of grace: Rejoice, O pure Virgin; again I say, rejoice, for your Son is risen from the tomb on the third day. Shine, Shine, O new Jerusalem, for the glory of the Lord has dawned upon you. Exult and be glad, O Zion. Be radiant, pure Theotokos, in the resurrection of your Son. (Liturgy Book page 305)

Communion Hymn

Receive the body, the body of Christ; drink from the font of immortality (2). (Liturgy Book page 318)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us. (Liturgy Book page 95)

Our Sunday School students and teachers will be ushered for communion first, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. The rest of the parishioners will then be ushered for communion, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. Your cooperation in this process is greatly appreciated.

Please remain in the hallway, narthex or fellowship hall during these parts of the Divine Liturgy if you have not already entered the church. Thank you!

TODAY - Sunday School Graduation: Today, May 21, 2017, will be our Sunday School graduation. Please join us in celebrating our beautiful Sunday School children as they complete another year of their religious education! Please also join us in thanking our Sunday School Director, Kim Mallas, and all of our Sunday School teachers (Preschool-K: Elaina Maragakis and Heidi Varechok; 1st-3rd Grades: Jamie Cayias, Cindy Johnson, and Rebecca Shand; 4th-5th Grades: Barbara Hillas and Tanya Holbeck; 6th-9th Grades: Bob Varechok; 10th-12th Grades: Harry Hillas and Brandee Mau). The ministry of teaching to our young people each week is one of the most important and most challenging ministries in our parish, and we are so appreciative for the endless sacrifice of your time and talents to our Sunday School program.

Journals for Fr. Jimi Foreso: Today Sunday, May 21, 2017, we will have journal books available in the fellowship hall to collect notes of encouragement for Fr. Jimi Foreso. For those who may not be aware, Fr. Jimi was one of the dear priests who flew in from Denver to celebrate the Liturgy with us during the formative first year of our Parish. In fact, he was the celebrant of our first Divine Liturgy. He is currently battling brain cancer and he needs to know how much he is in our thoughts and prayers. Please take the time to write a note of encouragement to Fr. Jimi during fellowship hour today.

Welcome Karl G. Maeser Preparatory Academy: Today, Sunday, May 21, 2017, we welcome Ms. Laura Ure and students from her Ninth grade Ancient World History class at Maeser Prep Academy in Lindon, Utah. We pray that their first experience within an Orthodox Church, and celebration of the Divine Liturgy will bring them much joy and allow them to appreciate the wider world around them. Please make them feel at home.

Four Weeks of Orthodox Christianity – An Inquirer’s Experience: Are you interested in learning more about your precious Orthodox Christian Faith? Are you willing to introduce someone to your precious Orthodox Christian Faith? Do you know someone who is timid, yet yearning to return to their Orthodox Christian Faith? Gather with us on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. (May 17, May 24, and May 31) to learn about the Orthodox Christian Faith. Light refreshments will be served, the atmosphere will be casual and the opportunity to come together in Christ will be celebrated.

Make some calls. Knock on doors. Reach out. Touch some hearts. If there is someone whom you feel could benefit from a call from Fr. Anthony about this class, please contact him at franthony@stannagocutah.org.

Memorial Day Trisagions: Fr. Anthony will be available to celebrate graveside Trisagion services at Mt. Olivet Cemetery on Memorial Day, Monday, May 29, 2017, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. To schedule a graveside Trisagion service at other cemeteries later that afternoon, please contact Fr. Anthony directly at 801-824-3987 or franthony@stannagocutah.org.

Interfaith Fundraising Event: Last Spring, our Parish participated in an interfaith fundraising event (the virtual 5K race) with St. Thomas More Catholic Parish and the Brighton LDS Stake Center (our neighbors to the west). It was a great success, but we’d love to get more involvement from our parish this year.

This year’s fundraiser is scheduled for Saturday, June 3, 2017, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. The dinner event is called “Project Help” and will benefit the Volunteers of America, Youth Resource Center, which provides lodging, meals and free legal help to over 800 homeless and at-risk teens per year. The main fundraising focus of the event will be a bake sale, but there will also be a silent auction and raffle as well.

Please reach out to Georgiann Petrogeorge at 801-450-0187 or georgiann.pino@gmial.com if you are interested in providing a baked good for the bake sale, or donating an item to the silent auction. And make plans to attend the dinner on June 3!

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRY TEAM ANNOUNCEMENTS

A stewardship commitment card should not be viewed to create a legal obligation, but rather a commitment of faith. If you are already giving to the Parish but have not completed a stewardship commitment card, we encourage you to please do so. Having the completed card allows us to maintain an up to date and accurate roster of the parish membership and also assists us greatly in preparing and tracking against our annual budgets. Stewardship cards can be obtained online at www.stannagocutah.org/?page_id=21.

Thank you to the generous Stewards of St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church. As we move into the summer months, we as parish leadership, clergy and your Stewardship Ministry Team, wish to express our appreciation for your sincere and generous support of our God-loving and Christ-centered parish. We thank you for your commitments and yet, still remind you that true and sincere Stewardship is the gifting back to the Lord, that which He has already given us. Let us never become complacent in our giving; for when that happens in our communities, the Light of Christ burns less vibrantly in the hearts of the faithful.

God bless you always and again, thank you for your sacrificial and well-pleasing hearts. God loves a cheerful giver! (2 Corinthians 9:7)
