Epistle Reading: St. Paul's Letter to Titus 3:8-15

Prokeimenon. Mode Plagal 2. Psalm 31.11,1

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous.

Verse: Blessed are they whose transgressions have been forgiven.

Titus, my son, the saying is sure. I desire you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to apply themselves to good deeds; these are excellent and profitable to men. But avoid stupid controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels over the law, for they are unprofitable and futile. As for a man who is factious, after admonishing him once or twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is perverted and sinful; he is self-condemned. When I send Artemas or Tychicos to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. Do your best to speed Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they lack nothing. And let our people learn to apply themselves to good deeds, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not to be unfruitful. All who are with me send greeting to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to Matthew 5:14-19

The Lord said to his disciples, "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Whoever then relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but he who does them and teaches them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven."

Resurrectional Apolytikion

The angelic powers appeared at Your tomb, the soldiers guarding it became as dead men, and Mary stood at Your grave seeking, seeking Your most pure body. But You made hell a captive; You were untouched by its might. You came to the virgin and granted life. O Lord, who rose from the dead, glory to You. (Liturgy book page 119)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, save us who sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Hymn for the Saint

Unending glory be Yours, O Christ our God, for making our holy fathers radiant lights to all the world. Through them You led us to the true faith. Compassionate Savior, glory to You. (Liturgy Book page 171)

Hymn for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Kontakion

O unfailing protection of Christians, and our faithful advocate before the Creator: though we are sinners, do not ignore our entreaty; but in your goodness, grant your timely help to us who appeal to you in faith. Quickly make intercession; on our behalf make speedy supplication, O Theotokos, for you always protect those who honor you. (Liturgy Book page 225)

Megalynarion (Hymn for the Theotokos)

It is truly right to call you blessed O Theotokos, ever blessed, most pure and the mother, the mother of our God. More honorable than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim. In virginity you gave birth to God, to God the word. Truly the Theotokos, we magnify you, we magnify you. (Liturgy Book page 69)

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord, praise the lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. (3) (Liturgy Book page 83)

After Communion Hymn

We have seen the true light; we have received the heav'nly Spirit; we have found the true faith, worshiping the undivided trinity, the Trinity who has saved us. (Liturgy Book page 87)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us. (Liturgy Book page 95)

STEWARDSHIP

As we enjoy the summer months, we as parish leadership, clergy and your Stewardship Ministry Team, wish to express our appreciation for your sincere and generous support of our God-loving and Christ-centered parish. We thank you for your commitments and yet, still remind you that true and sincere Stewardship is the gifting back to the Lord, that which He has already given us. Let us never become complacent in our giving; for when that happens in our communities, the Light of Christ burns less vibrantly in the hearts of the faithful. God bless you always and again, thank you for your sacrificial and well-pleasing hearts.

To date, we have received 163 stewardship commitment cards with pledges totaling $290,900! Thank you to all our dedicated stewards for helping us achieve our stewardship commitment goal!

Remember, a commitment card does not create a legal obligation, but is rather a commitment of faith. If you are already giving to the Parish but have not completed a stewardship commitment card, please do so. Having the completed card allows us to maintain an up to date and accurate roster of the parish membership and assists us greatly in preparing and tracking against our annual budgets.

To obtain a 2018 Stewardship Commitment Card or submit your card online visit stannagocutah.org/?page\_id=21.

God loves a cheerful giver! (2 Corinthians 9:7)

ST. ANNA CAPITAL CAMPAIGN (SACC)

Dear Fellow St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church Parishioners,

In 2017, our Parish came together as a whole in the spirit of Orthodox philanthropy and generosity to raise an incredible amount of funds to serve as a $1.25 million foundation for our Building program.

With the success of the Capital Campaign to date, the funds raised are sufficient to provide for a down payment on a suitable property or building that is to serve as our future home.

Given the knowledge that property and building costs are likely to continue to increase, we are not yet at a point where the luxury of complacency can be allowed. Our original goal of raising $3 million leaves us still in need of raising at least an additional $1.75 million to allow us to fully fund a property purchase and begin to plan our Church facilities.

The challenge before us remains great, but is achievable. It is one that calls on each of us to make sacrifices to help assure that the financial resources necessary for us to reach our continued growth and vitality of our beloved Parish, are available to us and our children. We are, after all, every one of us, witnesses to the extraordinary path the Holy Spirit has chosen for us, directed us on, and continues to reveal to the faithful of St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church.

In order to reach our goal of $3 million, we must continue to offer our Savior the best of our time, talent, and treasure. With the help and firm commitment of each of us, we can and will achieve this goal.

We of the St. Anna Capital Campaign respectfully implore those of us who have not yet pledged toward the Campaign to prayerfully consider making and fulfilling a sacrificial pledge toward fulfilling this goal.

In order to realistically achieve the goal of $3 million, we must also ask that each and every parishioner who has already pledged consider making a further ongoing yearly commitment in addition to that already pledged and fulfilled.

There are also opportunities to help fund this goal through gifts of appreciated stock, 401k required minimum distributions, gifts of real property and gifts through wills and trusts after our passing. Your SACC stands ready to answer your questions and assist you in considering and utilizing these methods.

Every fulfilled pledge will move us closer to achieving the goal of enabling our Parish to purchase property and build the Church Home that will house and provide for worship and fellowship for present and future generations of our children and spiritual descendants. Please carefully and prayerfully consider this request and pledge today as God leads you! Please consider giving above and beyond that which seems comfortable to you but commensurate with the blessings God rains down on each of us, seen and unseen, daily!

Please see the enclosed Coffee vs CASH attachment which is a simple way we can continue to provide a donation at just $5.00 to $10.00 per week.

Once again, we ask that you prayerfully consider giving to our building fund in order to build a future for ourselves, our children, our great grandchildren unto generations upon generations.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact any of the Capital Campaign Committee members or email us at stannacampaign@stannagocutah.org.

Thank you for your consideration.

CLERGY-LAITY CONGRESS REPORT

Dear St. Anna Parishioners,

First of all thank you so much for the opportunity to represent our beautiful St. Anna's Parish at the Clergy-Laity Congress (CLC), together with my fellow-delegate Pat Daskalas! It was an honor to represent St. Anna's and to meet parish leaders from all over the United States. You'd be amazed to learn how many people have actually heard about our parish and have followed our success.

We arrived in Boston on a Sunday afternoon, checked-in and registered for the CLC and met new friends, found old ones and greeted attendees from Holy Trinity and Prophet Elias. Some of our old friends were Fr. Michael Kouremetis, Fr. Milton Gianulis, Fr. Joseph Strzelecki, Fr. Constantine (Bus) Lazarakis, Fr. Luke Veronis (we were in Ghana, Africa 29 years ago), Fr. Alexander Leong (priest from Honolulu, Hawaii), Fr. Stratton Dorozenski and of course Fr. Chrysostomos Gilbert!!!

Monday morning was the Welcome Breakfast where his Eminence Archbishop Demetrios addressed the Congress. He stated that there have been issues with the finances and the budget, and the building of St. Nicholas Church, which was destroyed by the events of 9-11, but He assured us they were working towards resolving those issues and restructuring the staff at the Archdiocese. He apologized for all the issues that had happened at the National Office. We then attended Budget Meetings for the rest of the day.

Tuesday morning there were more meetings regarding the Budget and then that evening we enjoyed a Cultural Night. We were entertained by a Greek orchestra and a beautiful singer during the evening, singing Greek "oldies but goodies."

On Wednesday morning at 6:30 a.m. Fr. Anthony Savas was invited by His Eminence Isaiah to preside over the CLC Divine Liturgy, which was beautiful and memorable. After Liturgy, we joined Fr. Anthony for a Memorial Service for our beloved and departed Basil Chachas, who would have turned 14 on that day. May his memory be eternal. We considered it a blessing and comfort that our parish priest would have been assigned to celebrate services on this very day.

We again attended Budget Meetings in the morning and then we were bused to Holy Cross/Hellenic College to have lunch and tour their beautiful campus! The beautiful chapel is the highest point of Boston and you can see the entire city of Boston. We had a couple hours of free time in the afternoon, and we decided to go on the famous Duck Tour of Boston, in an amphibious vehicle that takes you through the streets of Boston AND the waters of the Charles River. What a treat!

At 4:00 p.m. we met with His Eminence Metropolitan Isaiah and all the other delegates and priests from the Denver Metropolis. His Eminence shared his thoughts regarding the financial situation at the Archdiocese and felt very positive about the progress they are making. After our meeting we stopped and had dinner at "Cheers, Where Everyone Knows Your Name" and where the opening scenes of the TV series

Cheers was filmed, and then walked back to our hotel to enjoy fabulous fireworks from our hotel room!

Thursday was the last session of the meetings we could attend, which was the Plenary Session, and where the final budget was NOT approved and the group voted for an unbalanced budget. After the Plenary Session we left for our 5:45 p.m. flight home.

Again, thank you for the opportunity for us to be the voice of our community. It was a memorable, eye-opening and spiritually rewarding experience.

Elaine George Zambos
