Epistle Reading: St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 1:10-17

Prokeimenon. Grave Mode. Psalm 28.11,1

The Lord will give strength to his people.

Verse: Bring to the Lord, O sons of God, bring to the Lord honor and glory.

Brethren, I appeal to you by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brethren. What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius; lest any one should say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any one else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to Matthew 14:14-22

At that time, Jesus saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the crowds. And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children. Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Resurrectional Apolytikion

By Your cross, O Lord, You destroyed death; to the thief You opened paradise. The myrrh-bearers' sorrow You transformed into joy, and You sent Your apostles forth to proclaim that You had risen from the dead, Christ our God, bestowing on all the world Your great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 123)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, save us who sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Hymn for the Myrrhbearer

You followed Christ the Lord, who was born of the Virgin for us, and kept His laws, and you lived by His statutes; and thus as we celebrate your all-holy memorial, Mary Magdalene, today with faith we extol you, O most blessed Saint, and with divine love and longing we honor your memory.

Hymn for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Kontakion

O unfailing protection of Christians, and our faithful advocate before the Creator: though we are sinners, do not ignore our entreaty; but in your goodness, grant your timely help to us who appeal to you in faith. Quickly make intercession; on our behalf make speedy supplication, O Theotokos, for you always protect those who honor you. (Liturgy Book page 225)

Megalynarion (Hymn for the Theotokos)

It is truly right to call you blessed O Theotokos, ever blessed, most pure and the mother, the mother of our God. More hon'able than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim. In virginity you gave birth to God, to God the word. Truly the Theotokos, we magnify you, we magnify you. (Liturgy Book page 69)

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord, praise the lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. (3) (Liturgy Book page 83)

After Communion Hymn

We have seen the true light; we have received the heav'nly Spirit; we have found the true faith, worshiping the undivided trinity, the Trinity who has saved us. (Liturgy Book page 87)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us. (Liturgy Book page 95)

STEWARDSHIP

As we enjoy the summer months, we as parish leadership, clergy and your Stewardship Ministry Team, wish to express our appreciation for your sincere and generous support of our God-loving and Christ-centered parish. We thank you for your commitments and yet, still remind you that true and sincere Stewardship is the gifting back to the Lord, that which He has already given us. Let us never become complacent in our giving; for when that happens in our communities, the Light of Christ burns less vibrantly in the hearts of the faithful. God bless you always and again, thank you for your sacrificial and well-pleasing hearts.

To obtain a 2018 Stewardship Commitment Card or submit your card online visit stannagocutah.org/?page_id=21. Remember, a commitment card does not create a legal obligation, but is rather a commitment of faith. If you are already giving to the Parish but have not completed a stewardship commitment card, please do so. Having the completed card allows us to maintain an up to date and accurate roster of the parish membership and assists us greatly in preparing and tracking against our annual budgets.

God loves a cheerful giver! (2 Corinthians 9:7)

ST. ANNA CAPITAL CAMPAIGN (SACC)

Dear Fellow St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church Parishioners,

In 2017, our Parish came together as a whole in the spirit of Orthodox philanthropy and generosity to raise an incredible amount of funds to serve as a $1.25 million foundation for our Building program.

With the success of the Capital Campaign to date, the funds raised are sufficient to provide for a down payment on a suitable property or building that is to serve as our future home.

Given the knowledge that property and building costs are likely to continue to increase, we are not yet at a point where the luxury of complacency can be allowed. Our original goal of raising $3 million leaves us still in need of raising at least an additional $1.75 million to allow us to fully fund a property purchase and begin to plan our Church facilities.

The challenge before us remains great, but is achievable. It is one that calls on each of us to make sacrifices to help assure that the financial resources necessary for us to reach our continued growth and vitality of our beloved Parish, are available to us and our children. We are, after all, every one of us, witnesses to the extraordinary path the Holy Spirit has chosen for us, directed us on, and continues to reveal to the faithful of St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church.

In order to reach our goal of $3 million, we must continue to offer our Savior the best of our time, talent, and treasure. With the help and firm commitment of each of us, we can and will achieve this goal.

We of the St. Anna Capital Campaign respectfully implore those of us who have not yet pledged toward the Campaign to prayerfully consider making and fulfilling a sacrificial pledge toward fulfilling this goal.

In order to realistically achieve the goal of $3 million, we must also ask that each and every parishioner who has already pledged consider making a further ongoing yearly commitment in addition to that already pledged and fulfilled.

There are also opportunities to help fund this goal through gifts of appreciated stock, 401k required minimum distributions, gifts of real property and gifts through wills and trusts after our passing. Your SACC stands ready to answer your questions and assist you in considering and utilizing these methods.

Every fulfilled pledge will move us closer to achieving the goal of enabling our Parish to purchase property and build the Church Home that will house and provide for worship and fellowship for present and future generations of our children and spiritual descendants. Please carefully and prayerfully consider this request and pledge today as God leads you! Please consider giving above and beyond that which seems comfortable to you but commensurate with the blessings God rains down on each of us, seen and unseen, daily!

Please see the enclosed Coffee vs CASH attachment which is a simple way we can continue to provide a donation at just $5.00 to $10.00 per week.

Once again, we ask that you prayerfully consider giving to our building fund in order to build a future for ourselves, our children, our great grandchildren unto generations upon generations.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact any of the Capital Campaign Committee members or email us at stannacampaign@stannagocutah.org.

Thank you for your consideration.

CLERGY-LAITY CONGRESS REPORT

Dear St. Anna Parishioners,

First of all thank you so much for the opportunity to represent our beautiful St. Anna's Parish at the Clergy-Laity Congress (CLC), together with my fellow-delegate Pat Daskalas! It was an honor to represent St. Anna's and to meet parish leaders from all over the United States. You'd be amazed to learn how many people have actually heard about our parish and have followed our success.

We arrived in Boston on a Sunday afternoon, checked-in and registered for the CLC and met new friends, found old ones and greeted attendees from Holy Trinity and Prophet Elias. Some of our old friends were Fr. Michael Kouremetis, Fr. Milton Gianulis, Fr. Joseph Strzelecki, Fr. Constantine (Bus) Lazarakis, Fr. Luke Veronis (we were in Ghana, Africa 29 years ago), Fr. Alexander Leong (priest from Honolulu, Hawaii), Fr. Stratton Dorozenski and of course Fr. Chrysostomos Gilbert!!!

Monday morning was the Welcome Breakfast where his Eminence Archbishop Demetrios addressed the Congress. He stated that there have been issues with the finances and the budget, and the building of St. Nicholas Church, which was destroyed by the events of 9-11, but He assured us they were working towards resolving those issues and restructuring the staff at the Archdiocese. He apologized for all the issues that had happened at the National Office. We then attended Budget Meetings for the rest of the day.

Tuesday morning there were more meetings regarding the Budget and then that evening we enjoyed a Cultural Night. We were entertained by a Greek orchestra and a beautiful singer during the evening, singing Greek "oldies but goodies."

On Wednesday morning at 6:30 a.m. Fr. Anthony Savas was invited by His Eminence Isaiah to preside over the CLC Divine Liturgy, which was beautiful and memorable. After Liturgy, we joined Fr. Anthony for a Memorial Service for our beloved and departed Basil Chachas, who would have turned 14 on that day. May his memory be eternal. We considered it a blessing and comfort that our parish priest would have been assigned to celebrate services on this very day.

We again attended Budget Meetings in the morning and then we were bused to Holy Cross/Hellenic College to have lunch and tour their beautiful campus! The beautiful chapel is the highest point of Boston and you can see the entire city of Boston. We had a couple hours of free time in the afternoon, and we decided to go on the famous Duck Tour of Boston, in an amphibious vehicle that takes you through the streets of Boston AND the waters of the Charles River. What a treat!

At 4:00 p.m. we met with His Eminence Metropolitan Isaiah and all the other delegates and priests from the Denver Metropolis. His Eminence shared his thoughts regarding the financial situation at the Archdiocese and felt very positive about the progress they are making. After our meeting we stopped and had dinner at "Cheers, Where Everyone Knows Your Name" and where the opening scenes of the TV series Cheers was filmed, and then walked back to our hotel to enjoy fabulous fireworks from our hotel room!

Thursday was the last session of the meetings we could attend, which was the Plenary Session, and where the final budget was NOT approved and the group voted for an unbalanced budget. After the Plenary Session we left for our 5:45 p.m. flight home.

Again, thank you for the opportunity for us to be the voice of our community. It was a memorable, eye-opening and spiritually rewarding experience.
