again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them: "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him: "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them: "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in His side, I will not believe." Eight days later, His disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said: "Peace be with you." Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to Him: "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Anastasi Community Dinner:

To all Parishioners of St. Anna's Greek Orthodox Church,

Xristos Anesti!

It is with humbled gratification that I undertook the role of chairman in preparing the 5th annual Anastasi dinner for the community. My feelings are identical to those on April 12, 2015, when we served our newly founded Greek Orthodox Mission Parish its very first Anastasi dinner. We have learned something new each year, and I wish to express my gratitude to all who assisted me in undertaking this growing endeavor. But first I must thank all who attended our Holy Pascha Anastasi Dinner, for without the faithful there would not be such an event. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for your participation and support.

Many thanks go out globally to all those who assisted us; I will not be thanking each person specifically here, as there are too many to add to this message. There are a few, however, I would like to specifically thank for their unyielding, tireless and consistent willingness to take the reins in their areas of expertise.

Σας ευχαριστούμε (sas epharistoume).

In no particular order my thanks go out to my Co-Chairman Elias Pylidis, Chuck Karpakis, Barbara Hillas, Sandra Zoolakis, Tina Sergakis and Sophie Wondolowski. On Thursday, I was surprised with a "phantom assistant," most likely known as the Women's Ministry Team, who had our dining room set up and prepared for the event two days prior to the planned setup day. Thank you to all those helping us out with this piece of the setup.

We served over 200 parishioners again this year and went through 28 legs of lamb. In addition, I'd like to add a special thank you to Presbytera Andrea Savas for introducing the inaugural "Hamburger Spot," which is sure to become the newest tradition of our Anastasi dinners to come.

We had two very special treats this year with the addition of Chris Dokos for the wonderful sounds of Greek music and of course, his fabulous, nearly speechless protégé, Fr. Anthony Savas, giving a recital we could all enjoy... how about that Zeibekiko, OPA!! Thank you both!

Graciously yours,
George Sergakis

Church Etiquette Reminder: Please remember that no one should enter the church during the Small Entrance, the Great Entrance, the Epistle Reading, the Gospel Reading, or the Creed. Please remain in the hallway, narthex, or fellowship hall during these parts of the Divine Liturgy if you have not already entered the church. Thank you!

Communion Ushering Reminder: All those who are prepared and wish to receive communion should wait to be ushered from their rows by a member of the Parish Council. Communion ushering will not commence until all altar servers have received communion.

Our Sunday School students and teachers will be ushered for communion first, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. Sunday School students should not proceed up the aisle for communion until they have been ushered. Sunday School students at the back of the church should remain at the back of the church until all rows have been ushered and the students in the back are formally excused by the Sunday School usher. After all Sunday School students and teachers have received communion, the rest of the parishioners will then be ushered for communion, front to back, row by row, by a member of the Parish Council. If you are not teaching or attending Sunday School and do not have small children you need to escort to Sunday School, please do not line up to receive communion with our Sunday School students.

Your cooperation in this process is greatly appreciated!

The Capital Campaign committee members will be reaching out to parishioners to make sure everyone has had an opportunity to make a donation toward our new church.

Every dollar donated or pledged brings us one-step closer to taking advantage of this wonderful opportunity given to our parish.
