Epistle Reading: St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews 6:13-20

Prokeimenon. Mode 3. Psalm 46

Sing praises to God; sing praises; sing praises to our King; sing praises.

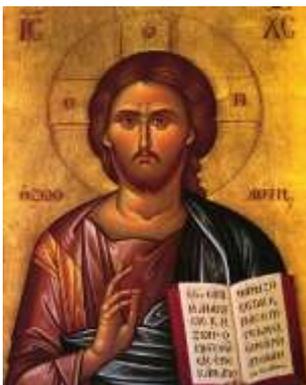

Verse: Oh, clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with the voice of rejoicing.

Brethren, when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore to himself, saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise. Men indeed swear by a greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he interposed with an oath, so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God should prove false, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us. We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner shrine behind the curtain, where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to Mark 9:17-31

At that time, a man came to Jesus kneeling and saying: "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a dumb spirit; and wherever it seizes him it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him; and when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has he had this?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible to him who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse; so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting." They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he would not have any one know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he will rise."

Response to First Antiphon

Through the intercessions of the Theotokos, Saviour, save us. (4)
(Liturgy Book page 25)

Response to Second Antiphon

Save us, O Son of God who were carried in the arms of Simeon the Just, save us who sing to you Alleluia. (4) (Liturgy Book pg. 196)

Response to Third Antiphon

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad, for the Lord has shown the mighty power of His arm. He has trampled down death by death, becoming the first born of the dead. He has delivered us from the depths of hell and has granted to all the world His great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 107)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, save us sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Resurrectional Apolytikion

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad, for the Lord has shown the mighty power of His arm. He has trampled down death by death, becoming the first born of the dead. He has delivered us from the depths of hell and has granted to all the world His great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 107)

For the Devout Man

Like warm and gentle rain, your tears of compunction made the desert burst forth in bloom. Your patient endurance made your suff'rings bear fruit one-hundred-fold and your wondrous deeds have filled all the world with light. O holy father John, intercede with Christ our God to save our souls. (Liturgy Book page 137)

Apolytikion of the Parish Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Kontakion

To You, the Champion Commander, I, Your city, inscribe victorious anthems of thanksgiving, for deliverance from suff'rings, O Theotokos. In as much as you have power unassailable from all manner of dangers, O set me free; that I may cry out to you: Rejoice, O Bride unwedded.

Trisagion Hymn

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)
(Liturgy Book Page 39)

Megalynarion (Hymn for the Theotokos)

In you, O woman full of grace, all creation rejoices, the orders of angels and the race of mankind. O hallow'd temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virginal souls, from you our God was incarnate and became a child, He who is God from all ages. By making your womb His throne He made you more spacious, more spacious than all the heavens. In you, O woman full of grace all creation, all creation rejoices. Glory to you. (Liturgy Book page 299)

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him, praise Him in the highest (3). Alleluia (Liturgy Book page 83)

Hymn after Communion

Let the light of Your face shine on us, let the light of Your face shine on us, O Lord. (3) (Liturgy Book page 325)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us.
(Liturgy Book page 95)

Great Compline

Monday Evenings during Great Lent - 7:00 pm

Celebrated during Lent in parishes, this larger version of the Compline Service is named in Greek the “Apodipno Service” – which literally means “Directly After Dinner.” Monastics in their convents or monasteries will rise directly from their evening meal and immediately return to the church for these evening prayers. This service is one of quiet contemplation and discipline. Created to be read at the end of the day, it is reflective on the events of the preceding hours, and allows the participant to pray for protection from the snares and obstacles of the coming night. It is reflective of sins committed and hopeful in the healing forgiveness of Christ. It is most well known for its beautiful Lenten Hymns “For God is with Us” and “Lord of the Powers, be with Us”. There are many psalms that are read during the Great Compline. The chanting is soft and the lights are dimmed. It is a lovely contrast to the joyful celebrations of the Sunday Liturgy that would have been experienced the day before. Participation in this service is paramount to a fully appreciated Lenten Journey.

Presanctified Divine Liturgy

Tuesday Mornings for Seniors (9:00 am) & Wednesday Evenings during Great Lent – 7:00 pm

In harmony with the just mentioned penitential/hopeful character of Great Compline, the Liturgy of Presanctified Gifts is a unique expression of the pastoral wisdom of the Byzantine liturgical tradition, the pearl of Lenten devotion.

In the Byzantine times, the liturgy of the Presanctified was celebrated daily. In the spiritual struggle of Great Lent, the faithful needed more than ever the strengthening partaking of Holy Communion. Thus, by the celebration of the Presanctified the opportunity of receiving Holy Communion every day was given to the faithful.

The wisdom of the holy fathers formulated the service of the Presanctified Gifts as a participation in the Eucharist but without the Anaphora -- a cheerful and triumphant act of offering the gifts to God -- establishing a Eucharist without thanksgiving and jubilation, a Eucharist that is rather a cry for help than a joyful acclamation: “O God set free our senses from deadly passions, let our eyes abstain from evil sights, our hearing from idle talk ... purify our lips as they sing your praises, let our hands produce only works that are pleasing to You..." (1st Prayer of the faithful of the Liturgy of the Presanctified). And this cry finds response and comfort in the self-giving love and grace of God. Holy Communion is finally given after the penitential and purifying course of prayers and hymns of the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts.

Salutations and Akathist Hymn to the Most Holy Theotokos

Friday Evenings during Great Lent – 7:00 pm

The Akathist Hymn is a profound, devotional poem, which sings the praises of the Holy Mother and Ever-Virgin Mary. It is one of the most beloved services in the Orthodox Church. It was composed in the imperial city of Constantinople, "the city of the Virgin," by St. Romanos the Melodist, who reposed in the year 556. The Akathist Hymn has proven so popular in the liturgical life of the Church that many other hymns have been written following its format. These include Akathists to Our Lord Jesus Christ, to the Cross, and to many Saints.

Salutations Services are offered during the first four weeks of Great Lent. These services are comprised of divided portions of the Akathist Hymn. The entire Akathist Hymn is celebrated on the Fifth Friday of Great Lent.

The Akathist hymn consists of praises directed to the Mother of God, beginning with the salutation of the Archangel Gabriel: "Hail". As the hymn is chanted all of the events related to our Lord's Incarnation pass before us for our contemplation. The Archangel Gabriel marvels at the Divine self-emptying and the renewal of creation which will occur when Christ comes to dwell in the Virgin's womb. The unborn John the Baptist prophetically rejoices. The shepherds recognize Christ as a blameless Lamb, and rejoice that in the Virgin "the things of earth join chorus with the heavens." The pagan Magi following the light of the star, praise Her for revealing the light of the world.

The word "akathistos" means "not sitting," i.e., standing; normally all participants stand while it is being prayed. The hymn is comprised of 24 stanzas, arranged in an acrostic following the Greek alphabet. The stanzas alternate between long and short. Each short stanza is written in prose and ends with the singing of "Alleluia." Each longer stanza ends with the refrain: "Hail, O Bride Unwedded."

The first part of the hymn is about the Annunciation to the Virgin Mary by the Angel. It describes Mary's surprise at the news, her visit to her mother and Joseph's doubts as to her innocence. The second part is about the birth of Christ, the worship of the Shepherds and Magi, the flight to Egypt and the visit to Saint Simeon in the Temple. In the third part the hymn directs our attention to the renewal of the world by Christ's coming, and the amazement of the Angels and the wise men at the sight of the Incarnation of God's Son. The fourth and the last part is once more a lyric and rhetorical appraisal of Virgin Mary, whom the poet adorns with the most beautiful of adjectives asking her to accept his poetical offering and to intercede for the salvation of human race from the earthly sin.

PARISH COUNCIL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parish Council Meeting: The next Parish Council meeting will be held, Monday, April 19, 2021, at 7:00 p.m.

Message from the Medical Advisory Ministry: Updates on COVID-19 Precautions

The Medical Advisory Ministry (MAM) recently met to discuss advances in our understanding of COVID-19 and the availability of vaccines. The following recommendations and changes are based on evolving Covid-19 regulations, vaccination levels, and public policy.

Recommendations include:

- As a religious community, we hope to worship together while protecting each other from the dangers of the epidemic. Our guidelines for doing this rely on both the religious understandings and deep medical knowledge of our Committee members. We will continue to prioritize keeping ecclesiastical practices (e.g. communion) as un-encumbered as possible.
- Monitor changes in public health guidance. Revisit restrictions and make changes when it is safe to do so. For example, our current guidelines allowed us to reopen for in-person worship as soon as the State of Utah State lifted restrictions (June, 2020). Since our reopening, we have had three individuals attend services who were later confirmed as having Covid-19. There have been no known in-church transmissions.

What Changes:

- All services are open for in-person worship. An overflow area will be set up in the Fellowship area.
- Offering of Holy Unction in Holy Week subject to updated protocols from the Metropolis.
- The building will be opened for small group functions (e.g. making crosses, bible study, Parish Council meetings, meetings of ministry leadership teams, operation of food distribution services). Precautions such as wearing a mask, distancing, and no food or drink are still in place.
- The leader of the group meeting will be asked to disinfect the premises following the meeting (materials will be provided).
- Food preparation specific to church services (dyeing eggs, for example) will be resumed, either at homes or at specified kitchens. Participants will be asked to wear masks, use appropriate hand hygiene with gloves, and to distance themselves (“6-foot rule”).

What stays the same:

- At this time, all COVID-19 precautions remain in place: contact-tracing protocols, wearing a mask, hand hygiene, distance using the “6-foot (4 chairs) rule”, and staying home when sick. For more information, refer to the St. Anna COVID-19 precautions posted on the website (<https://stannagocutah.org>).
- Holy Communion and Antidoron will continue to be administered as part of Liturgy following COVID-19 precautions.
- Church Services will still be streamed on YouTube
- Tuesday morning in-person services will continue for parishioners who are 65 or older or have co-morbidities.
- Participants will be asked to refrain from singing or chanting.
- Food or drink is not allowed.

When will all of this end?

No one can predict a specific date or timeline for when all of the above precautions will be eased. However, our experience so far tells us that patience and continuing to follow CDC guidance will help protect everyone as well as end this pandemic sooner.

While we encourage parishioners to seek the advice of their health care providers regarding COVID-19 vaccinations, we will not require vaccination. Until we know more, everyone – even people who have had their vaccines – should continue taking basic prevention steps when recommended.

Please refer to Centers for Disease Control (CDC) website for more information about COVID-19 guidelines and vaccines, <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/va.org>

SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Anna Food Support Program

To help address hunger in our community, St. Anna has established our church building as a permanent drop-off site to support the Copperview and Entrada pantries that distribute food to families in need throughout the Sandy and greater area. Parishioner donations of nonperishable food items listed below can be dropped off on designated days and times and delivered regularly to the two pantries. In addition, special requests for urgently needed items will be coordinated with our Parish ministries through short-term drives and projects.

Needed food items: Canned meats (tuna, chicken, salmon, etc.); canned vegetables, canned chili, peanut butter, jelly, Top Ramen, Instant Mac and Cheese, Cup O' Noodle (other instant meals); rice; flour, sugar, dry milk, and granola bars.

Donation drop-off:

- Drop-off days/times: Sundays 9:00 am to noon; Tuesdays 9:00 am to 11:00 am
- Place donated items in the large blue bin in the Narthex
- All donations from the above list are appreciated. Families can also join and purchase case goods (e.g. WINCO, Reams, Sam's Club, and COSTCO etc.
- Moving forward, collections efforts will be expanded to incorporate community donations.

Thank you for your generosity in supporting this important parish-wide service program. God bless. Food Support Ministry. For questions, please call Ann Sasich (801) 518-2528 or Kathy Shand (801) 554-4250.

WMT Meal Packet Service Project - Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who stayed after Liturgy on March 30, 2021 to assemble and deliver 208 meal packets to the Entrada/Diamond Ridge pantry. As an enhancement to the Food Support Program, the Women's Ministry Team sponsored and organized this special service project addressing a priority need to provide instant meals for students during extended weekends.

A variety of items, including beef sticks, canned tuna/meat, mac 'n cheese cups, crackers, fruit packets, etc., were purchased and packed in two-gallon zip bags for young people who may have had little or nothing to eat during their Spring break on April 5th-9th. Your heartfelt offering of time to help others in need is greatly appreciated. May God bless you all. Bev Bartel and Joanne Dokos, WMT Co-Chairs

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stock Donations: Our parish is now set up to receive marketable securities donations. Such donations will be received and handled in accordance with the financial policies adopted by the Parish Assembly. Please contact Parish Council Treasurer Phill Floor at treasurer@stannagocutah.org for further details.

STEWARDSHIP ANNOUNCEMENTS

2021 Stewardship Update: As of Tuesday, April 6, 2021, we have received stewardship commitments for 2021 totaling $297,482 putting us at 88% of our $340,000. If you have not yet had an opportunity to complete your 2021 Stewardship Commitment Card, please bring it to church this week or mail it to PO Box 171224, Holladay, Utah 84117. Stewardship cards can also be submitted online at https://stannagocutah.org/?page_id=21.

Stewardship, as you well know, is the absolute life-blood of our community's financial health. We do not pass trays or make seasonal appeals to pay our operational expenses. To God's glory, and to your credit, we sustain primarily through Stewardship and the sustained giving of our contributors.

PAN ORTHODOX, FRATERNAL, AND OTHER COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Reminders from the Daughters of Minos: Each month we like to provide chapters' news to the Kriti Magazine. If you would like to announce the graduation, engagement, wedding, baptism, retirement, or a recent death, or any important update in your family, please send in the information and a photo if you would like to our historian Angie Katsanevas at 801-231-7626 or angiekatsanevas@aol.com before the third of each month.
