Epistle Reading: Paul's Letter to the Hebrews (12:1-10)

Prokeimenon. Mode pl. 4. Psalm 11.

You shall guard us, O Lord; You shall preserve us.

Verse: Save me, O Lord, for the holy man has ceased.

Brethren, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin that easily distracts, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who instead of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons? "My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose courage when you are punished by him. For the Lord disciplines him whom he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives." It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Besides this, we have had earthly fathers to discipline us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? For they disciplined us for a short time at their pleasure, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to John (1:43-51)

At that time, Jesus decided to go to Galilee. And he found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael, and he said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!" Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man."

Response to First Antiphon

Through the intercessions of the Theotokos, Savior, save us. (4)
(Liturgy Book page 25)

Response to Second Antiphon

Save us, O Son of God who rose from the dead, save us who sing to You, Alleluia (4) (Liturgy Book page 29)

Response to Third Antiphon

Before your most pure image we bow down, O Good One, entreating You to forgive our sins, Christ our God. For You willingly ascended the cross in the flesh to deliver from the enemy those whom You had made. For this we thank you and we cry to You, O Savior: By coming into the world, You have filled all things with joy. (Liturgy Book page 129)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, save us sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Resurrectional Apolytikion

The joyful news of Your resurrection was proclaimed by the angel to the women disciples. Having thrown off the curse that fell on Adam, they ran elatedly to tell the apostles: Death has been vanquished; Christ our God is risen from the dead, blessing all the world with His great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 111)

Hymn for the Feast

Before your most pure image we bow down, O Good One, entreating You to forgive our sins, Christ our God. For You willingly ascended the cross in the flesh to deliver from the enemy those whom You had made. For this we thank you and we cry to You, O Savior: By coming into the world, You have filled all things with joy. (Liturgy Book page 129)

Hymn for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Apolytikion for the Saints

The holy martyrs suffered painful tortures for Your sake, O Lord; be compelled by what they endured, and heal our every pain, we entreat You, O only benevolent God.

Kontakion

Victorious Lady, mighty champion defending us, we your servants now inscribe to you this hymn of thanks, for you rescued us from suffering and tribulation. Theotokos, with your power that can never fail, keep us safe from every danger our whole life long that we may cry to you: Rejoice, O Bride unwedded. (Liturgy Book p. 271)

Trisagion Hymn

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)
(Liturgy Book Page 39)

Megalynarion (Hymn for the Theotokos)

In you, O woman full of grace, all creation rejoices, the orders of angels and the race of mankind. O hallow'd temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virginal souls, from you our God was incarnate and became a child, He who is God from all ages. By making your womb His throne He made you more spacious, more spacious than all the heavens. In you, O woman full of grace all creation, all creation rejoices. Glory to you. (Liturgy Book page 299)

Communion Hymns

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him, praise Him in the highest (3). Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 83)

Hymn after Communion

We have seen the true light; we have received the heav'nly spirit; we have found the true faith, worshipping the undivided Trinity, the Trinity who has saved us. (Liturgy Book page 87)

Dismissal Hymn

Lord, grant long life to him who blesses us and sanctifies us. (Liturgy Book page 95)

CONVERSATIONS ABOUT STEWARDSHIP
ST. ANNA GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH WORKS

In mid-January we launched our 2025 Stewardship campaign. As Fr. Anthony announced after Liturgy, we had an outstanding response. We presently have over 150 Stewardship commitments, with new commitments coming in every day. We've had 427 expressions of interest in our Ministries by these Stewards.

Sam and I would like to thank all of those who have committed for 2025 for their contributions. We encourage those who have yet to commit to join us. All contributions are appreciated.

This year we are encouraging Stewards to get involved with one or more of our Ministries. We are a Parish that supports ourselves through Stewardship, including your contributions of time and talent. For Orthodox Christians, Stewardship is an important part of spiritual development.

The work our Ministries perform is critical to operating and growing our Parish. And, as Chuck said during his presentation to the Inquiry class, doing the work of our Parish together builds relationships and synchrony within our community.

For those who expressed interest in a Ministry we forwarded your information to relevant Ministry leaders. They should soon be contacting you.

On May 10 (to be confirmed) we will be holding a "Ministry Fair" during which Parishioners can speak with Ministry leaders about their 2025 plans and opportunities to participate. In the meantime, if you have questions about our Ministries and how you might get involved, please feel free to write or call me (tleitko@gmail.com; 646-643-9755).

Thank you all for making St Anna a Parish that works.

Tom Leitko, Stewardship Ministry Team Co-Chair

Please Note: The nave should be accessed only through the narthex. The door located south of the altar is not to be used for entering or exiting during services. Those needing to access the kitchen should exit the nave via the narthex and enter the kitchen through the fellowship hall. Similarly, those coming from the kitchen should exit through the fellowship hall and enter the nave through the narthex. Your cooperation is appreciated!

STEWARDSHIP ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank you to all who have turned in their 2025 stewardship cards. As of March 5, we have received 152 stewardship commitments totaling $417,938, putting us at 85.3% of our budgeted goal ($490,000).

In 2024, our parish collected $475,540 in Stewardship donations. To ensure we meet the continued financial commitments of our parish, the 2025 budget approved at our Fall Parish Assembly includes Stewardship donations totaling $490,000, representing a three percent (3%) increase compared to 2024 collections. With the continued support and participation of our dedicated parishioners, we are confident this objective can be achieved!

ST. ANNA SERVICE MINISTRY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Food Support Program – Food Pack Preparation! Today, directly after Liturgy, before you settle in for fellowship, please plan to give a few minutes of your time helping the St. Anna Service Ministry put together 250 weekend food packs for students in need at Diamond Ridge/Entrada High School. Everything will be set up in the Fellowship Hall, ready for you to help. Assembly is easy! Just grab a bag, follow the signs, put each designated item in your bag, tie the top, and know you will be helping a student get through a weekend without being hungry. With your support this project can be completed in just minutes.

Thank you in advance for your help,

Ann Sasich, Joann Dokos, Bev Bartel, and Kathy Shand
