Epistle Reading: Acts of the Apostles (2:1-11)

Prokeimenon. Mode pl. 4. Psalm 18.

Their proclamation went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.

Verse: The heavens declare the glory of God; the firmament shows the creation of His hands.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God."

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to John (7:37-52; 8:12)

On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, "If any one thirst, let him come to me and drink. He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, 'Out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water.' " Now this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. When they heard these words, some of the people said, "This is really the prophet." Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee? Has not the scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" So there was a division among the people over him. Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him. The officers then went back to the chief priest and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" The Pharisees answered them, "Are you led astray, you also? Have any of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him? But this crowd, who do not know the law, are accursed." Nikodemos, who had gone to him before, and who was one of them, said to them, "Does our law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?" They replied, "Are you from Galilee too? Search and you will see that no prophet is to rise from Galilee." Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

CONVERSATIONS ON STEWARDSHIP WITH FR. ANTHONY

As part of the Stewardship Sunday program, I will periodically interview a steward nominated by a ministry. The interviews will explore perspectives on what stewardship is, what purpose it serves in our parish life, and how parishioners grow spiritually through fulfilling our shared responsibility of the Church's mission.

Appropriately, my first interview is with Tom Leitko, co-leader of our Stewardship Ministry. Tom describes stewardship as service to the Church and doing God's work in the world. He explains that stewardship is realized through Ministry, including practical acts of care, education, organization, and generosity, all of which helps a parish community flourish. For Tom, stewardship is a way parishioners can demonstrate their faith through service, while also maturing their spirituality.

Tom says, the Stewardship Ministry works in partnership with other Ministries, to help parishioners discover meaningful ways to contribute their time, talent, and treasure. The Stewardship Ministry supports the parish's stewardship and ministry work by providing clarity, purpose, communication and recruitment support.

Stewardship is often misunderstood by many as a financial transaction, but it is rather – a spiritual practice. Tom reflects that his understanding of stewardship came about by delving into the Parable of Talents – the 'bad servant' 'buried his gifts' because of his fear of loss. According to Tom, overcoming fear of loss enables spiritual growth and a richer collaboration in parish life. By serving alongside others, parishioners move beyond simply attending worship and deepen relationships within the community.

His closing message is that stewardship is central to the Christian journey: Orthodoxy does not end after liturgy but continues in the everyday work of serving God and neighbor through the Church.
