Epistle Reading: Paul's Letter to the Hebrews (11:33-40; 12:1-2)

Prokeimenon. Mode pl. 4. Psalm 67.

God is wondrous in His saints.

Verse: Bless God in the churches.

Brethren, all the saints through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might rise again to a better life. Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tempted, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated – of whom the world was not worthy – wandering over deserts and mountains and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin that easily distracts, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

Gospel Reading: The Gospel According to Matthew (10:32-33; 10:37-38; 19:27-30)

The Lord said to his disciples, "Every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven; but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny him before my Father who is in heaven. He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me." Peter said in reply, "Lo, we have left everything and followed you. What then shall we have?" Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. But many that are first will be last, and the last first."

Response to First Antiphon

Through the intercessions of the Theotokos, Savior, save us. (3)
(Liturgy Book page 25)

Response to Second Antiphon

Save us, O Son of God, risen from the dead, We sing to You, Alleluia.
(3) (Liturgy Book page 29)

Response to the Third Antiphon

From on high You descended, O merciful Lord. You accepted the cross and three days in the tomb to free us from the bondage of sin, O our life and resurrection. Glory to You, O Lord. (Liturgy Book page 127)

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, save us sing to You: Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 37)

Resurrectional Apolytikion

From on high You descended, O merciful Lord. You accepted the cross and three days in the tomb to free us from the bondage of sin, O our life and resurrection. Glory to You, O Lord. (Liturgy Book page 127)

Hymn for the Saints

Throughout the world Your Church is adorned with the blood of the martyrs as with royal purple and fine linen. Through them she cries out to You, Christ our God: Grant your lasting peace to all the world and bestow on our souls Your great mercy. (Liturgy Book page 175)

Apolytikion for the Church

O God-minded Anna, you bore the pure Mother of God, the one who within her conceived the Conceiver of life itself. You were therefore transported to a place now in heaven. Joyful ones all reside there in the home of all gladness, asking for forgiveness for those who honor you, O blessed one.

Trisagion Hymn

As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves in Christ. Alleluia. (3) (Liturgy Book page 293)

Kontakion

To You, O Lord, Creator of the universe, the world offers the God bearing martyrs as the first fruits of creation. Through their prayers, and through those of the Theotokos, keep Your Church in perfect peace, O Savior rich in mercy. (Liturgy Book page 283)

Megalynarion (Hymn for the Theotokos)

It is truly right to call you blessed O Theotokos, ever blessed, most pure and the mother, the mother of our God. More hon'orable than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim. In virginity you gave birth to God, to God the word. Truly the Theotokos, we magnify you, we magnify you. (Liturgy Book page 69)

Communion Hymn

Exalt, you just, in the Lord. Exalt, you just, in the Lord; from the upright praise is fitting. (3) Alleluia. (Liturgy Book page 323)

Stewardship Update: Thank you to all who have turned in their 2026 stewardship cards. As of April 21, we have received 221 stewardship commitments totaling $516,758, putting us at 99.4% of our budgeted goal ($520,000). To ensure we meet our continued financial commitments, the 2026 budget approved at our Fall Parish Assembly includes Stewardship donations totaling $520,000, representing an approximately six percent (6%) increase over the amount budgeted in 2025. With the continued support and participation of our dedicated parishioners, we are confident this objective can be met!

CONVERSATIONS ON STEWARDSHIP WITH FR. ANTHONY

As part of the Stewardship Sunday program, I will periodically interview a steward nominated by a ministry. The interviews will explore perspectives on what stewardship is, what purpose it serves in our parish life, and how parishioners grow spiritually through fulfilling our shared responsibility of the Church's mission.

Appropriately, my first interview is with Tom Leitko, co-leader of our Stewardship Ministry. Tom describes stewardship as service to the Church and doing God's work in the world. He explains that stewardship is realized through Ministry, including practical acts of care, education, organization, and generosity, all of which helps a parish community flourish. For Tom, stewardship is a way parishioners can demonstrate their faith through service, while also maturing their spirituality.

Tom says, the Stewardship Ministry works in partnership with other Ministries, to help parishioners discover meaningful ways to contribute their time, talent, and treasure. The Stewardship Ministry supports the parish's stewardship and ministry work by providing clarity, purpose, communication and recruitment support.

Stewardship is often misunderstood by many as a financial transaction, but it is rather – a spiritual practice. Tom reflects that his understanding of stewardship came about by delving into the Parable of Talents – the 'bad servant' 'buried his gifts' because of his fear of loss. According to Tom, overcoming fear of loss enables spiritual growth and a richer collaboration in parish life. By serving alongside others, parishioners move beyond simply attending worship and deepen relationships within the community.

His closing message is that stewardship is central to the Christian journey: Orthodoxy does not end after liturgy but continues in the everyday work of serving God and neighbor through the Church.
